

Parable of the Sower Scenarios

Tim went to church for the first time every with his friend John. Tim heard about Jesus for the very first time and he heard about how much Jesus loves him. Tim was so excited about this news that he went home and told his parents about his time at church, they just smiled at him and told him it wasn't true. Tim soon forgot about the fact that Jesus loves him and started playing soccer on Sunday mornings instead of going to church.
