

Who Had The Bigger Debt? Who Will Love More?

Rik and Cathy owed money to a bank. Rik owed $10 and Cathy owed $1000. The bank told both Rik and Cathy that they didn't have to pay the money back, their debt was forgiven. Who had the bigger debt? Who will love more?

Rik and Cathy were playing with balls in the house. Rik's ball went through the front window, breaking all the glass and making a mess everywhere. Not to mention the big hole through the window. Cathy threw the ball and it knocked the clock off of the wall. The batteries came out of the clock, but it was easily fixed. When the parents came home, both Rik and Cathy explained what had happened and were very sorry for what they had done. Both Rik and Cathy were forgiven. Who had the bigger debt? Who will love more?

Rik and Cathy forgot to do their homework and went to school the next day. Cathy had 8 math questions and a chapter of a book to read. Rik had 2 math questions. Both Rik and Cathy explained that they forgot to do their work and apologized. The teacher forgave Rik and Cathy and said they could hand in their work the next day. Who had the bigger debt? Who will love more?